

In life There Was A Young Girl

By; Shani'ya Hawthorne

In life as a young girl
she forgot how to love
In life as a young girl
She was called a teenage thug
In life as a young girl
with no home to go
In life as a young girl
the jail cell was all she knew

In life as a young girl
she was looking for her family
In life as a young girl
she only knew life painfully
In life as a young girl
she was also forgotten
In life as a young girl
she was adopted

In life as a young adult she learns how to push through
In life as a young adult
she makes her life new
In life as a young adult
she will graduate school because being a neonatologist is what she wants to do

In life as a young adult
she's changed the whole scene
In life as a young adult
she's building new dreams
In life as a young adult
she going to let the world know

Her name is Shani'ya Hawthorne and her story has been told
