

Welcome to the Course

This course provides an opportunity to earn CEs through reading NCDA's book, Gaining Cultural Competence in Career Counseling (2nd ed.) by Kathy M. Evans and Aubrey L. Sejuit

In recent years, journals and other publications have attended to issues for diverse populations but a single resource is more useful to educators, practitioners, and students who want to be more informed about diversity, equity, social justice and career counseling. This 2nd edition, goes into depth on each of these issues, as well as career theories, assessment, and ethics. It also includes a chapter on working with children and adolescents. Each chapter includes new exercises and questions for reflection, and case scenarios supplement the content.
